Our fees

Lending:

Generally, I won't charge you any fee for the financial advice I provide to you. This is possible because, the lender may pay us a commission if you decide to take up our advice and when your loan settles.

However, I may charge you for the financial advice that I provide if you cancel or refinance your mortgage within the first two years after it settles.

I may charge you a one-off fee if the following occurs:

1. When I don't receive commission from the lender. Any such fee would be agreed and authorised by you in writing before I complete the services, and would be based on an estimate of the time spent providing the advice. (This may arise in the rare event that your request is in relation to a product that is offered by a lender that is outside my usual arrangements with my product providers).
2. When I have to repay commission to the lender: If a lender requires that I repay commission within 24 months of settlement of your lending, I may charge you a one-off fee. Any such fee would be no more than $2,500 (plus GST) and would be calculated based on a rate of $250 (plus GST if any) per hour of my time spent providing financial advice to you in connection with the applicable loan. The fee I charge you will not exceed the amount of commission I have to repay to the lender.

Insurance:

Generally, I won't charge you any fee for the financial advice I provide to you. This is possible because, the insurer may pay us a commission if you decide to take up our advice and when your insurance is in place.

However, I may charge you for the financial advice that I provide if you cancel or change insurance provider within the first two years after your policy is in force.

I may charge you a one-off fee if the following occurs:

1. When I have to repay commission to the insurer: If an insurer requires that I repay commission within 24 months of your policy being implemented, I may charge you a one-off fee. Any such fee would be no more than $2,500 (plus GST) and would be calculated based on a rate of $250 (plus GST if any) per hour of my time spent providing financial advice to you in connection with the applicable insurance policy. The fee I charge you will not exceed the amount of commission I have to repay to the insurer.
